

RADIOGRAPHY ASSOCIATE IN SCIENCE

ADMISSIONS GUIDE

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The full picture of a patient's health often begins with an x-ray examination or other sophisticated imaging techniques. Radiology technologists use radiation to produce images of the human anatomy, which help diagnose and treat injury and disease. Our program gives you a solid foundation to excel in this field.

Pinellas County residents will be given priority for admission.

- One cohort is available each year: Spring
- Completion of the program allows a student to apply to SPC's B.A.S. Health Services Administration.
- Clinical facilities may prohibit students who do not have an assigned social security number from participating in clinical experiences which are a mandatory component of the curriculum.
If other placement options are not available, the student would need to withdraw from that semester and would not be able to progress in the program. These factors must be taken into consideration prior to pursuing admission to the program.

Selection Criteria, Selection Process and Admissions

- All application requirements must be satisfied by the closing of the application window.
- Up to 24 students are admitted depending on availability of clinical sites. Typically, 150+ students apply.
- The average GPA for acceptance varies for each applicant pool but typically ranges from 3.7 to 4.0.
- When the number of eligible applicants exceeds program availability, selective criteria are used to determine which applicants are admitted. In the case of a tie, a lottery will be used.
This criterion is based on a point system using the pre-entry GPA and completion of pre-entry, general education, and support coursework. Students will be considered using a point system based on health program GPA, and the number of general education and support coursework credits completed.
  - 31 points may be awarded based on the number of health program pre-entry, general education and support coursework credits completed.
  - 40 points may be awarded based on the health program GPA earned from pre-entry, general education, and support coursework.
- Pinellas County residents will be given priority for admission.
Should there be positions available after exhausting eligible Pinellas County resident applicants, the remaining applications will be considered based on the point system.

If you are admitted, you will need to complete the following pre-enrollment requirements to maintain eligible status.

- Complete the Notice of Intent survey by the date indicated in the admission email.
- Successfully pass a background check and drug screening by the date indicated in the admission email.
- Complete the Health Education Program orientation on the date indicated in the admission email.
- Complete the Health Examination Form and any required immunizations. Form and due date provided at Orientation.
