

HUMAN SERVICES

BACHELOR ADMISSIONS GUIDE

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The Human Services Bachelor of Science (BS) degree offers a distinct opportunity for interdisciplinary study drawing students from the lower division, human services programs, and students pursuing an A.A. degree with a psychology, social work, or sociology sub-plan. This degree may also fulfill admissions requirements to master's programs in psychology, social work, or other areas of social and behavioral sciences

ADMISSIONS REQUIREMENTS

To be admitted to the bachelor's degree program in Human Services, you need:

1) Complete a minimum of 60 credits from a regionally accredited institution, including

- o 15 credits of general education courses
- o ENC 1101 – Composition I or equivalent
- o A college-level math course: MAT 1033, MAT 1100, STA 2023, STA 2023H, or any course with MAC, MGF, MTG, or MAS prefix

2) A cumulative GPA of 2.00 on a 4.00 scale or higher.

Please note:

- Students entering with an A.S. in a Human Services discipline, are automatically admissible to this program.*
- It is strongly recommended that students have a background in a Human Services field or a degree/certificate in a Human Services field in order to be successful in this program.
